Description

Information regarding the functions can be defined, which can be later used for project management activities.

Preconditions: Have an admin user defined.

Requirements: Depending on each user the functions vary:

- Add project information; customers; projects and activities
- View/Edit/Approve/Reject employee timesheets
- View any employee's attendance records

Acceptance criteria:

The functions should be properly displayed in the web page,

The text should be easily readable, with proper font sizes.
